

Clue 1:

Their visages are on display in the museum in St. Joe
But their town was elsewhere here ever so long ago
A village that flew high and was a promising place to be
But today, a roadside stand is all of this town left to see.

Clue 2:

Today when we read the history books, all we talk
Is of Orville and Wilber Wright over in Kitty Hawk
But this man said the skies were his along the Lake
And left a series of wondrous hopes in his wake.

Clue 3:

Throughout the county and even at its heart
Lies a style of architecture that's a work of art
The best example however is in Berrien Springs
An inspiration and a most beautiful thing.
